Kathryn “Kitty” Maloney-Langmade Appointed To Third Term On Camelback East Village Planning Committee

W.J. Maloney Plumbing, Heating & Cooling has announced that company president Kathryn “Kitty” Maloney-Langmade has been reappointed to the Camelback East Village Planning Committee for the city of Phoenix. Having already served two terms over the last three years, she will serve an additional 12 months on the committee.

The job of the committee is to work with the community on planning and development issues, with the goal to offer a variety of housing , job opportunities, education, recreation and shopping facilities.

The Camelback East Village committee is one of 12 planning areas in Phoenix. It is generally bounded by Northern Avenue to the north, Grand Canal to the south, Seventh Street to the west and 64th Street to the east.

“It’s an honor to be able to serve the city of Phoenix on this committee which helps guide the future growth of the area,” said Maloney-Langmade. “It’s important to me, as a Phoenix native and business owner, to be able to contribute in this capacity.”

Maloney-Langmade earned a Master of Business Administration degree in International Management from the Thunderbird School of Global Management and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Colorado State University. She earned her journeyman’s plumbing license in 2009.

Maloney-Langmade is a grade level advisor for the National Charity League, whose mission is to foster mother-daughter relationships in a philanthropic organization committed to community service, leadership development and cultural experiences. Additionally, she is a sustaining member of the Junior League of Phoenix and has chaired several committees, including Women Living Free and Hearts and Hands.

Maloney-Langmade is a native of Phoenix.
